

MANUFACTURING INSECURITY

American manufacturing has been in a state of crisis for more than a decade. It has taken its toll on workers, communities, and the nation's technical and industrial capacity. It has placed America's economic and national security at risk. Please join the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Council, the Coalition for a Prosperous America, the AFL-CIO Metal Trades Department and the Alliance for American Manufacturing at a forum on:

AMERICA'S MANUFACTURING CRISIS AND THE EROSION OF THE U.S. DEFENSE INDUSTRIAL BASE

Presentation:

Dr. Joel Yudken will present the findings of a new report, Manufacturing Insecurity, commissioned by the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Council.

Respondents:

Dr. Jerry Abbot, current faculty member and former director of the Industry Studies Program, Industrial College of the Armed Forces, National Defense University

Owen Herrnstadt, Director, Trade and Globalization, International Association of Machinists

Date: Thursday April 14

Time: 10:00 – 11:30 am

AFL-CIO Presidents Room
815 16TH St. NW
Washington DC
(McPherson Square Metro station)

Space is limited. To attend in person you must rsvp to Lisa Johnson ljohnson@afcio.org.

To participate by webinar:

VIA WEB go to <https://afcioee.uc.att.com/afcioee/meet/?ExEventID=466601>

Enter first name, last name, email address. Then select participant application

TO CONNECT YOUR PHONE TO THE WEB MEETING Once "in" the meeting room: click the Audio/Video tab, select telephone connection instructions, and follow instructions to connect your phone to the meeting. *1 to raise your hand.